The screenshot shows the LexisNexis Campus interface. The user is logged in as Romi Meyerowitz. The left-hand navigation menu is expanded to show 'My courses'. A blue arrow points from the 'My courses' menu item to a list of course titles in the main content area. A blue box with the number '1' is at the end of the arrow.

The course will be displayed. Select the relevant chapter/section from which you would like to view resources from [2]

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis Campus interface for the course 'Understanding Business Law, 7th Edition - Administration'. The page displays a grid of chapter cards. A blue arrow points from the 'Chapter 1: The Australian Legal Landscape - The Big Picture' card to a blue box with the number '2'.

The list of available resources will be displayed. Select the resource you wish to view. PDF, Word and Powerpoint presentations will automatically download [3]. Interactive learning activities can be opened and viewed within LexisLearning [4]. These interactive learning activities can also be downloaded and uploaded into your own Learning Management System, to do this click on the downloadable SCORM file to download [5].

The SCORM file will download to your preferred download location [6]. If you cannot find this location please click on the browser you currently use and refer to the guide;
